Advanced Police Discipline: Discipline in the Age of Technology/Body Cameras, Do Not Call Lists, Social Media and Press and Public Scrutiny

Join experienced labor counsel from Campbell Durrant Beatty Palombo & Miller, P.C. for an interactive police discipline seminar designed to update chiefs and police command staff on the latest police discipline legal and practical developments while also reviewing police discipline basics and fine tuning the discipline process.

Discuss optimal handling of discipline investigations including the best way to conduct investigatory interviews, questions that should be asked in every discipline investigation, Loudermill hearing essentials, how to handle discipline involving criminal conduct, the limits of Weingarten union representation rights, how to handle Brady/Giglio/Do Not Call List issues, discipline for off duty conduct, usage of body or car camera footage as evidence, deciding upon the appropriate disciplinary penalty and the role of labor counsel and your manager and elected body in the disciplinary process.

Review all of these issues with labor counsel who have handled hundreds of police discipline grievances, conducted hundreds of disciplinary investigations and advised police departments on the successful outcome of countless discipline investigations. Discuss how to win your discipline case before it hits arbitration and what labor arbitrators look for in ruling on discipline grievances.

Review examples of the good, the bad and the ugly from real life discipline cases and have labor counsel answer all of your discipline questions. Attendance at this three hour seminar earns each attendee a PELRAS training certificate in Advanced Police Discipline.
