

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP)

WHAT IS IT?

A federally funded program operated nationally by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and administered in Pennsylvania by the Department of Education (PDE).

ELIGIBILITY

Public or private non-profit schools, local or State government agencies, private non-profit organizations, private non-profit universities or colleges community, faith-based organizations.

SPONSORS

- Non-profit organizations
- Must have 501 (C) 3 status
- Work directly with PDE

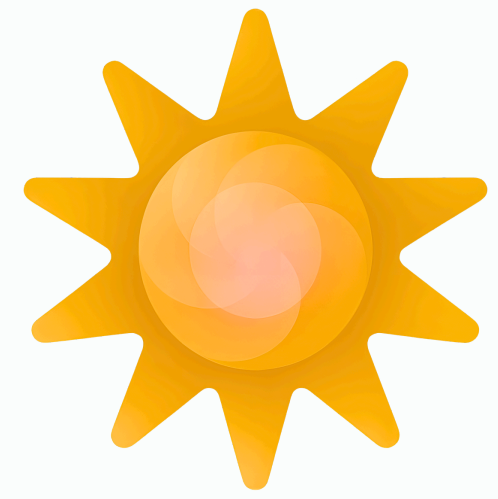

SITES

- Locations where the meals are served
- Determines the type of eligibility
- Works with the sponsor

Pennsylvania
Department of Education

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM (SFSP)

SPONSOR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Find the sites
- Staff the sites
- Find the volunteers
- Train the staff and volunteers
- Arrange for the meals
- Maintain the paperwork
- File for reimbursement
- Complete the annual training

SITE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Have trained site supervisor present
- Count meals as they are served
- Implement activities (optional but preferred)
- Practice and observe good safety and good health practices

SITE TYPES

- Open
- Enrolled
- Camps
- Rural Non-Congregate (RNC)

Eligibility differs depending on the site type

CONTACT

RA-SFSP@pa.gov

Or

SFSP Home Page

Pennsylvania
Department of Education